Welcome To Alister MacKenzie Golf Course

The MacKenzie Golf Course is, without a doubt, the player's course at the Haggin Oaks Golf Complex. Designed by the mastermind behind Augusta National and measuring a respectable 6,991-yards from the back tees, this 73-year-old track, originally designed by world renowned architect, Alister MacKenzie, is a true test of golf for the low handicapper.

For those golfers out there who are more interested in a tamer test of their skills, the middle tees play to 6,542-yards and the forward tees offer a softer challenge at a mere 6,057-yards. Whatever tee you play from, you'll be treated to a great escape from the heart of the city and the concrete jungle as you play among the stately heritage oaks along the plush bent grass greens and fairways of the MacKenzie Course. In 2001, the city put $6.5 million into renovations at the MacKenzie course, improving irrigation and rebuilding the 18th and 9th greens to fit the original Alister MacKenzie design. In doing so, they created an island among the three freeways, I-80, Business 80 and Watt Avenue that encircle the complex. The escape is so complete that after you clear the first tee, your only reminder of the world outside is the occasional passing of a freight train just outside the northern border of the 350-acre layout. Other than that, there are no houses, no buildings and no reminders of the outside world once you're underway.

To book your tee time reservation call us at 916-481-GOLF.

The Players Advantage Guide

The Players Advantage Guide is very unique and beneficial for golfers. Part of the guide you can use like a yardage guide. We have included important features for each hole that might help you improve your score like yardage from certain landmarks, the way each green slopes, and a specific golf tip from the golf professional for each hole. There are also mini golf tips from a golf pro designed to help improve your game.

One of the differences between our players guide and the others out there is that you can enter your scores and game analysis stats on our special Game Analysis Scorecard and then into our website. Use information entered on the web to see trends and other analysis. You can also take advantage of the other areas on the website that are meant to improve your game. Go to www.tpaclub.com for more info.

The information below is information about how to use the scorecard in the middle of the players guide.
